

CASA is hosting a Betty Williams Sheep Clinic

at Hachita Farms
4500 Private Road 162
Elizabeth, CO 80107

May 15th & 16th, 2019

Betty Williams is a well known stockdog handler, breeder, trainer and clinician. She and her husband John operate a large ranch near Lewistown, MT.

Her stockdogs help them daily with ranch work from roundup and sorting to penning and loading for shipment. Betty has developed an efficient system for training stockdogs and handlers, which maximizes both the dog's working instincts and its responsiveness to the handler. She has found that her training methods work very well for all stockdog breeds. Her previous clinics have been well received by those who have attended them. Note: These clinics tend to fill early.
